
We strategy h f U

4 c_Ta Ybe fhfgT\aTU_

œ˜ÃÕ•Ì>Ì^œ˜Ê À>vÌÊÊUÊÊ iVi“L

g[ ]fa]b[\U a

U\e`\aZ[T^´f _bVT_ WXiX_bc`Xag YeT`Xjbe^

th

cWe strfaYegg 2027L

4 c_Ta Ybe fhfgT\aTU_X

œ˜ÃÕ•Ì>Ì^œ˜Ê ÀivÌÊÊUÊÊ iVi“L

Closing date for comments 18th March 2011.

Contact:

Planning Strategy
PO Box 14439
1 Lancaster Circus
Birmingham
B2 2JE

E-mail: planningstrategy@birmingham.gov.uk
Telephone: (0121) 303 3734

Mark Barrow
Strategic Director of Development

theBirminghamplan

CC1	Spatial Strategy for the City Centre
CC2	Structure of the City Centre
CC3	City Centre - Overall Level of Development
CC4	Expanding the City Core - Strategic Allocations
CC5	Connectivity
CC6	Network of Walking Routes
CC7	Network of Open Spaces
CC8	The Quarters
NW1	North and West - Overall Level of Development
NW2	Aston, Newtown and Lozells Area Action Plan
NW3	Aston Regional Investment Site
NW4	Greater Icknield SUN
NW5	pan<extNetwork of Walking Routes(s)]TJ/NW3 429.96 Tm[(Network of Walking Routes(s)]TJ-3429.96 Td[(Net

the

The Birmingham Declaration on Climate Change

1.74 The Birmingham Declaration underlines the City Council's commitment to be at the forefront of the effort to tackle issues around sustainability. The Declaration sets out a number of commitments including that by 2015:

- U Ê ÊÊ œ Õ ˜ V ˆ • Ê Û i … ˆ V • i Ã Ê Ü ˆ • Ê This Ê electrically powered or run on lique ed petroleum gas.
- U/Ê.Êi Ê ˆ Ì Þ Ê œ Õ ˜ V ˆ • ½ Ã Ê i ˜ iÀ ÞÊ Ê consumption will be reduced by 25%.
- U ÊÊ Ê œ v Ê i ˜ i À } Þ Ê Õ Ã i ` Ê L Þ Ê in population Council should come from renewable sources.
- U ÊÊ Ê œ v Ê ˆ À " ˆ ˜ } … > " ½ Ã Ê … in Ê will be linked to District Heating systems.

1.75 The declaration will help Birmingham move towards achieving the ambitious target of a 60% reduction in CO^2 emissions in the city by 2026 compared with 1990 levels.

Local Transport Plan (LTP)

1.76 LTP2 sets out a comprehensive 5-year integrated transport strategy

The Birmingham Prospectus

1.78 The purpose of the Birmingham Prospectus is to set out a long-term ambition and priorities for the future of Birmingham and then to take these forward by setting out a series of speci c actions. The Core Strategy is well placed to help deliver, and in some cases lead on the delivery of these actions. This includes:

- U Ê , i ` i Û i • œ « ˆ ˜ } Ê i Ü Ê - Ì À i i Ì Ê
- U Ê Ê ˜ ˆ ˜ } Ê Ì … i Ê À Õ ˜ Ü > Þ Ê > Ì Ê Birmingham Airport.
- U Ê Õ À ˆ ˜ } Ê Ã Õ Ã Ì > ˆ ˜ > L • i Ê } À Ê population by up to 100,000 people between 2006-2026.
- U Ê i • œ « ˆ ˜ } Ê > Ê ˜ i Ü Ê V À i > Ì ˆ Û Ê in Ê
- U, Ê Û i • œ « ˆ ˜ } Ê Ì … À i i Ê œ v Ê Birmingham's urban centres.
- U Ê Ê ˜ ˜ ˆ ˜ } Ê Ì … i Ê À i ` i Û i • œ « " i ˜ Ê Longbridge.
- U Ê Û ˆ ˜ } Ê v œ À Ü > À ` Ê « Õ L • ˆ V Ê improvements in the city centre and suburban centres.
- U Ê Ê Û i À ˆ ˜ } Ê i Ý V i • • i ˜ Ì Ê V œ ˜ ˜ i Ê for 21st Century living incorporating transport and communications network in and out and within the city.

Regional Policy Context

1.79 The Issues and Options paper was prepared under the guidance of the Regional Spatial Strategy (RSS) for the West Midlands, which was revoked by Government on

the

the

colleges and the Transforming Education programme, which

the

the

the

the

the

t

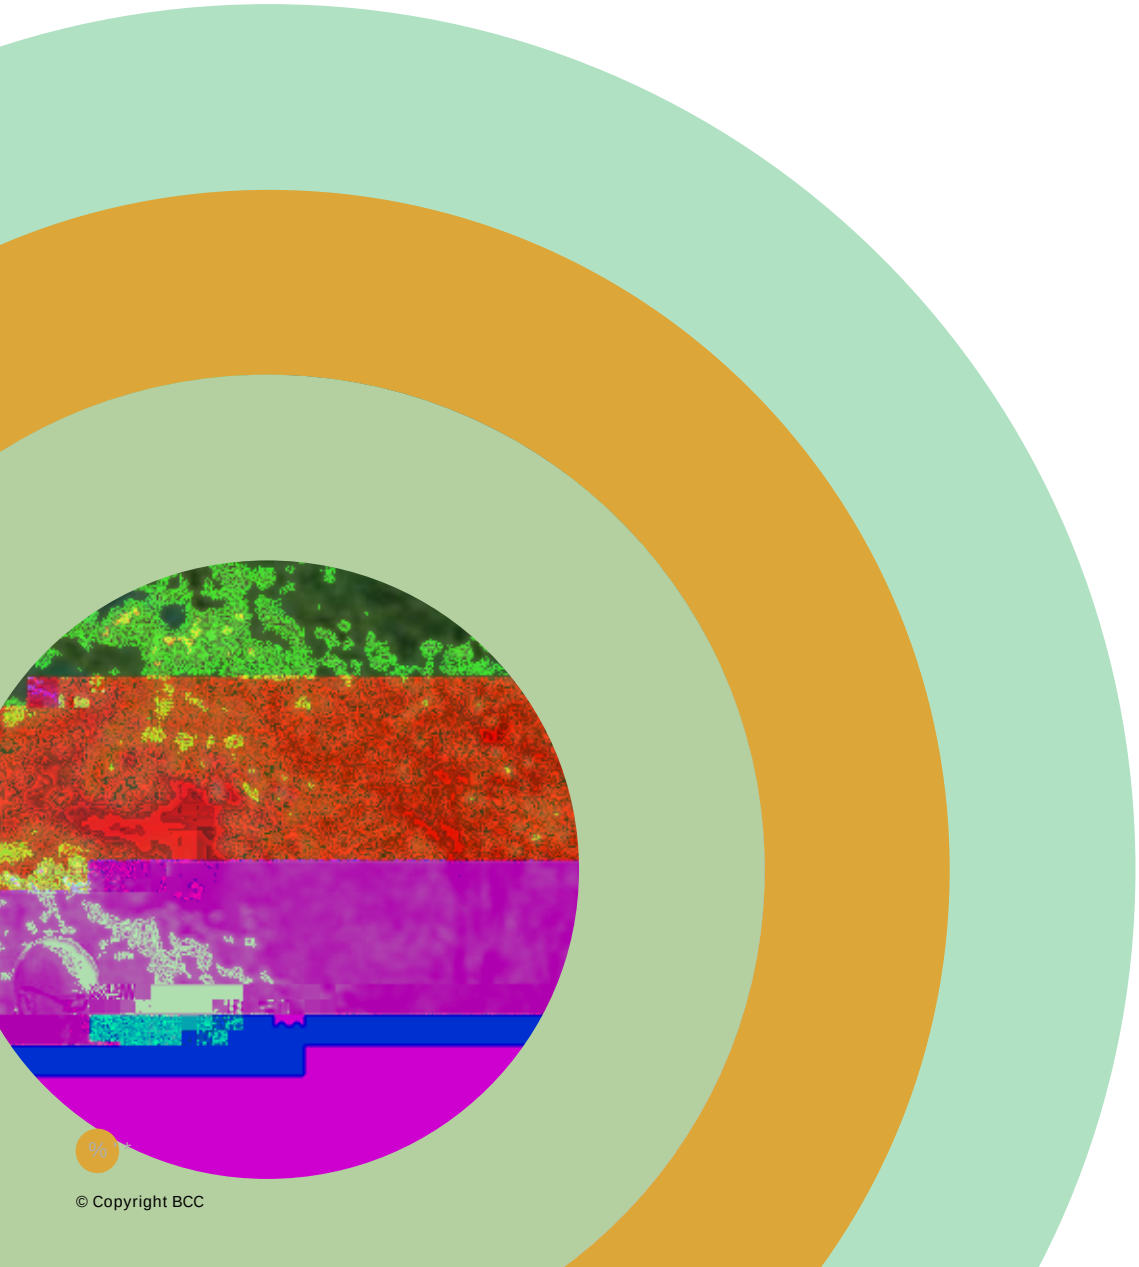
the

the

the

the

the



© Copyright BCC

the