

Persuasive letter writing (KS2) Learning Objectives

The letter should be written to a specific person or organization.
 It should be clear about what the writer wants to achieve.
 It should use persuasive language to convince the reader.
 It should be written in a polite and respectful tone.
 It should be clear and easy to read.

Background

The letter should be written to a specific person or organization.
 It should be clear about what the writer wants to achieve.
 It should use persuasive language to convince the reader.
 It should be written in a polite and respectful tone.
 It should be clear and easy to read.
 The letter should be written to a specific person or organization.
 It should be clear about what the writer wants to achieve.
 It should use persuasive language to convince the reader.
 It should be written in a polite and respectful tone.
 It should be clear and easy to read.

The letter should be written to a specific person or organization.
 It should be clear about what the writer wants to achieve.

Drafting

Drafting

