

From its very conception, the Shakespeare Memorial Library in Birmingham was an ambitious venture. When charismatic minister, and author of the 'Civic Gospel', George Dawson, wrote in _____ that he wanted it to contain 'every addition and translation of Shakespeare', this no doubt included a copy of the prestigious

A. Freeman, 'Bernard Alexander Christian Quaritch (1819-1899)',
, (2009)

S. Lee, (Clarendon
Press, Oxford, 1902)

A.J. West, (Oxford
University Press, 2003)

Joan Turner

'Everything to Everybody' Heritage Ambassador

